A group of our Klowns went down to the Halloween Adventure costume store in New York City for our third meeting. There are two entrances: 808 Broadway and 104 4th Avenue. In attendance were Ted Jacobsen, John Kelly, Dawn Lorentz, Tom & Lorraine Lorentz, Bob & Joan Miller, Anne Raphael, Avery, Eva & Amiya Toledo and myself. We also welcomed our new Klown Gil Ferrer who lives in Brooklyn. He can be reached at 718-369-1203 and gferrerlaw@yahoo.com. Ralph Edwards was unable to attend.

The Halloween Adventure has all sorts of clown costumes, make-up, accessories and other Clown paraphernalia. Some ordered their costumes through a catalog. John Kelly is no stranger to this store and the owner advised us to mention that we are Shriner Clowns which granted us the opportunity get a 20% discount on all merchandise we bought. John gave us some thoughts and ideas and helped us in deciding about what to buy. The staff was very courteous and helpful and we received some great tips about how to put on make-up.

As I mentioned in my report of our previous meeting on March 8th, it is necessary for us to set up by-laws which the potentate (Ill. Sanford) must have a copy of and will control. Ted was gracious enough to send me the by-laws of Kena Klowns as a guide to set up the Klown Klub of Mecca by-laws. This will probably be on the agenda at the next meeting which is scheduled to be held on Sunday, April 26, 2009 and will be held at the Lorentz home in Blauvelt, 14 Green Hedges Lane, Blauvelt, NY 10913. If anyone doesn't know how to get there, please call Tom or myself. I urge all members of the Klown Klub of Mecca to attend because we will have to organize and set up our set of by-laws and vote on them.

Sincerely,
Rolf C. Schuetz, Sr.
Secretary

PS: If anyone needs a top hat as part of his or her costume, I have a battered one that might work.
